Preparation: Gather a few small items like washcloths, handkerchiefs, or even small toys. Use child-sized clothespins that are easy to open and close. Set up a low clothesline or string between two chairs. 2. Demonstration: Show the child how to open and close the clothespin. Then, demonstrate how to hang an item on the line, making sure it's smooth and straight. 3. Practice: Let the child practice hanging the items, providing assistance and encouragement as needed. Focus on the child's effort and enjoyment, not perfection. 4. Completion: When finished, encourage the child to put away the clothespins and items. Note: Please take a video of your child doing the activity and send it to our Group Chat.
